c-command (constituent command) is a relationship between the nodes of grammatical parse trees. It is closely associated with the phrase structure grammars of the Chomskyan tradition (Government and Binding, Minimalist Program), and may not be valid or applicable to the tree structures of other theories of syntax, such as dependency grammars. The relation of c-command has served as the basis ...

c-command - Wikipedia

A parse tree or parsing tree or derivation tree or concrete syntax tree is an ordered, rooted tree that represents the syntactic structure of a string according to some context-free grammar. The term parse tree itself is used primarily in computational linguistics; in theoretical syntax, the term syntax tree is more common.. Parse trees concretely [clarification needed] reflect the syntax of ...
