The common law—so named because it was "common" to all the king's courts across England—originated in the practices of the courts of the English kings in the centuries following the Norman Conquest in 1066. The British Empire spread the English legal system to its historical colonies, many of which retain the common law system today. These "common law systems" are legal systems that give ...

Taxonomy and systematics. The common starling was first described by Linnaeus in his Systema Naturae in 1758 under its current binomial name. Sturnus vulgaris are derived from the Latin for "starling" and "common" respectively. The Old English stær, later stare, and the Latin sturnus are both derived from an unknown Indo-European root dating back to the second millennium BC.
