The tariff history of the United States spans from 1789 to present. The first tariff law passed by the U.S. Congress, acting under the then recently ratified Constitution, was the Tariff of 1789. Its purpose was to generate revenue for the federal government (to run the government and to pay the interest on its debt), and also to act as a protective barrier around newly starting domestic ...

You're not from around here, are ya? Just in case you forgot that George F. Will hates America, just wait 'til you see his latest column advising that we take a page from a foreign country: America, the only developed nation that shares a long -- 2,000-mile -- border with a Third World nation, could seal that border.
