From the time when I was a small child, I've always been a huge fan of banana splits. Whenever we go to a restaurant, I'd actively seek it out on their dessert menu and then bug my parents until they would order one for our table. They try to pretend that we'd all have an equal share of the banana dessert, but they knew that once that bowl hit the table it was all mine.

Recalling a time when the cabinet industry was less transparent. Note: Since posting this blog in 2011 many of the Masterbrands cabinet lines have switched from 3/8" sides to half inch sides. Possibly due to better consumer awareness. Instead of removing or editing the blog I am keeping it posted as it was to mark the time and place our industry was at in early 2011.

About a year ago, over a series of weekends I was up too early anyway, I went on a buttermilk pancake-making bender. I tried, well, not all, but several of the recipes I always read about, the loftys and the fluffys and the best-overs. I used, in turn, cornstarch and vinegar and unseemly amounts of ...

I have four messy kids and a big dog. My carpets are downright gross much of the time, and I have really struggled with finding the time to keep those carpets clean. I am also one of the worlds biggest cheapskates and hate having to rent one of those Rug Doctor machines for shampooing. Not to mention that fancy-smancy $20 bottle of carpet cleaning solution too.

Just wanted to let you know that I love your itty bitty dress pattern and I finished my first one up a couple weeks ago. We are expecting baby number 3, a girl, and I have one of each already. ðŸ™, I found the pattern for the toddler version but it was too big to fit my daughter so I made my own pattern to fit a size 24m-2T.
