Now that 'Going Clear' the HBO exposé on Scientology has aired, we break down 10 things we learned from the damning documentary.

10 Things We Learned From Scientology Doc Going Clear

The story of Scientology begins, of course, with Lafayette Ronald Hubbard, the native of Tilden, Nebraska, who created the movement. Wright preemptively dismisses attempts to dismiss Hubbard, arguing that to label him a pure fraud is to ignore the complex, charming, delusional, and visionary features of his character that made him so compelling to the many thousands who followed him and the ...

A review of Going Clear, by Lawrence Wright

Going Clear raises the stakes by putting all the Dark Side of Scientology in one powerful documentary, and it will live in cyberspace forever. Not only is the internet more powerful than the Church's secrecy, but lately their PR efforts have been a disaster.

Skeptic's Insight: Stranger Than Fiction: A Review of the

In "Going Clear" Lawrence Wright does something that surprised me: he managed to make Scientology (or, at least, the people who run the Church) more repellant to me than they were going in, but he also manages to satisfactorily explain how such an organization could come to be and why people would follow it.
