Then an automobile, and another, and suddenly footsteps, unseen silhouettes. Through doors obsequiously held open, [the shadows] step from their huge black sedans and parade in single file and enter the large vestibule of the palace of the President of the Assembly. " Berlin, February 20, 1933.

SEEING THE WORLD THROUGH BOOKS - Mary Whipple Reviews

"Seeing comes before words. The child looks and recognizes before it can speak. "But there is also another sense in which seeing comes before words. It is seeing which establishes our place in the surrounding world; we explain that world with words, but words can never undo the fact that we are surrounded by it.
